

General Policies for Attending the Canadian Sexual Exploitation Summit Disrupts Demand Conditions for Attending:

Conditions for Attending:

Community fit: You must be likely, in the judgment of Defend Dignity, to be a good addition to the community working to end sexual exploitation in Canada -- someone who can contribute to the conversations and connections at the Summit, and the projects that may come out of it.

Conferences code of conduct

Those attending the CSES understand that they do so in a spirit of open-mindedness, respect and tolerance. Defend Dignity (dD) does not tolerate harassment in any form. Participants agree to respect confidentiality and understand that the atmosphere at the CSES is appropriate for high-level relationship building and strategy development in growing the movement to end sexual exploitation.

dD reserves the right to sanction or expel conference participants who violate these rules.
