

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT VIDEO CONTEST

1st Prize: $750 + Free Lifetime access to digital presentations
2nd Prize: $500 + Free Lifetime access to digital presentations
3rd Prize: $500

Outcome: 2-3 minute video highlighting a sexual exploitation issue. All prize-winning videos become the property of Defend Dignity (CSES organizer).

Choose one or more options below. You may enter more than one video.

1. Social media plays an increasing role in sexual exploitation. How do we help kids understand the need to stay safe on social media?
2. Indigenous women and girls are far over-represented among those victimized by sexual exploitation in Canada. How can we help all Canadian young people become aware and involved in this problem?
3. There are three key groups of people in sexual exploitation; those being sold, those who sell, and those who buy. More attention needs to be paid to those who buy. How can we address this area?
4. The cause of ending sexual exploitation attracts female involvement. How can boys and men get more involved in this issue?
5. Pornography is often viewed by young people on a regular basis, making it the sex educator of today. How does pornography interact with the issue of sexual exploitation?

Guidelines:

1. Must be no longer than 3 minutes in length
2. Must be original ideas
3. Desire to make a difference when it comes to sexual exploitation
4. Contest period is between May 1, 2020- March 31, 2021
