Making Sense of the Agenda:

All events are pre-recorded and will be available the morning of May 4 and the morning of May 5, except for the opening sessions on both days and the live panels which are webinars. You will want to tune in at those times so you don't miss them. Many of the speaker sessions are listed at 8:15 a.m. CDT on May 4 and May 5. Those sessions will all be available at once for you to watch at your leisure throughout the Summit.

For the live panels on May 4 (10:00 a.m.; 12:00 p.m.; 1:30 p.m.; 2:00 p.m.; 3:30 p.m. CDT) and May 5 (10:00 a.m.; 12:00 p.m.; 2:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m.; 5:00 CDT), we are using the Q&A on Zoom.

Triggered?

The content of some of the sessions could be triggering. If you would like to talk with someone, head over to the Resources near the bottom of the home page of the Phone Whova App and you'll see a box called "Triggered?" in the grid of boxes. Click on that for instructions. If you're on your desktop, then these Resources run along the left side of the screen. We have a trained trauma counselor on call if you need to access them.

Life-Time Access

The LifeTime access pass will give you access to ALL sessions and you are not required to book any of them. The presentations will be available on another secure platform for you to access. After the Summit, we will reach out to everyone who has purchased a life time access pass with log in instructions to access them. If you wish to upgrade to the Life-Time Access at the Summit, you can purchase the upgrade anytime.
